Before Visiting:
Read over the scavenger hunt, review the map, and walk the route.
Review the background information provided and study additional material if necessary.
Divide students into groups of 10 - 15 participants with at least one adult chaperone per group.
Two or more groups can participate simultaneously by beginning the scavenger hunt at different stops.

Optional:
Check out the museum’s compass box. Students may use compasses to navigate from stop to stop.

During the Scavenger Hunt:
Read walking directions to students who are using compasses.
Correct any misdirected navigation.
Once the group reaches the site, read the clue aloud.
Use discussion questions to engage students and encourage idea sharing.
Be sure to reward students who actively participate.
