Public Programs
Participatory Learning Experience (PLE)

We are looking for motivated undergraduate students to participate in our PLE program starting Spring Term 2016. A select group of students will earn 1 credit/term and will have in-depth exposure to Museum programs and the natural and cultural history of Oregon. Students are trained to interpret in the exhibit hall, guide tour groups, and assist in special programs and events.

REQUIREMENTS:
- Commit to at least 2 terms at 1 credit/term (35 hours/term). This includes trainings, supplemental reading, exhibit hall shifts, guiding tours, and special events
- Attend PLE orientation on Thursday, March 31, 2:00-3:00 PM
- Attend training sessions on Tuesdays and Thursdays, April 5 – 28, 2:00–4:00 PM
- Participate in a feedback session: to be scheduled individually
- Attend a midterm meeting on Thursday, May 5, 2:00-3:00 PM
- Submit final evaluation on Thursday, June 9, by noon

GRADING: Grading will be based on three areas:
- Attendance (50%)
- Participation/engagement (30%)
- Professionalism (20%)
